

2ND TRANSNATIONAL MEETING, Nov. 2021 MATERA, ITALY

On the 22nd and 23rd of November 2021 in Matera hosted the 2nd Transnational Meeting of the YES C+C PROJECT, the first face to face meeting since the KO meeting.

Partners discussed about the work implemented so far related to the IO2 Digital Modular Curriculum – Learning materials, there was a great exchange between partners on all intellectual outputs of the project and the next steps to accomplish, in particular they planned the future actions to be taken on the communication activities to spread the news of the main outcomes and events of the project itself.

Materahub organized a visit at Hubout, a co-working space and social innovation hub for startups incubator, an interesting project which involves young entrepreneurs and other local organization connected with the youth needs.

The Partnership is going to collaborate all together to reach a good result and achieve the project's goal.

2ND LAG-MEETING BY MATERAHUB

Materahub organized the second LAG'meeting (Local Action Group) after six months of the project's start. The group had the opportunity to discuss and evaluate the progress and the development of IO1 Assessment and profiling questionnaires and the IO2 Digital Modular Curriculum. They provide some feedbacks on how to use the tools to reach an effective result analyzing some strategies on how to recruit the target group of adult learners and promote the e-learning course.

NEXT STEPS

The YES C+C consortium finished creating the toolkit (IO1) that local mentors will now soon use to better grasp the training needs of adult learners at local level and to set up their individual training paths. It was therefore also translated into all partners' languages.

In a next building step, the project partners started work on the 8 modules of the online training materials (IO2) that will be used on the online training platform (IO3) by adult learners in order to improve their creative, cultural and innovative competences and skills.

Considering the just mentioned online training platform (IO3), 3 tools will be used for the meetings, interaction and assessment on the platform and included in the mentors' guidelines. The partners agreed that Google Meet will be used for meetings, Jamboard will be used for interaction and Kahoot will be used for the assessments. A test version of this platform in English is planned to go online in April 2022.

Also, at the beginning of April 2022, the YES C+C project will hold its third transnational meeting, face-to-face again luckily, this time in the beautiful city of Lisbon, Portugal. The meeting will be hosted by the Cai Association and will focus on the further project development, its activities and next steps considering the products and activities mentioned above and before.
